Section 6 – Beneficiary Information

If you are applying for life insurance coverage

- Complete all applicable sections.

If you are applying for critical illness insurance coverage

- Proceeds from any critical illness living benefit, including Critical Illness Benefit, Early Discovery Benefit, Return of Premium on Surrender Benefit Rider, if applied for and the Return of Premium on Expiry Benefit Rider, if applied for, will be paid to the owner of the policy unless a beneficiary has been named or a direction to pay has been completed and is on file.
 - Beneficiaries may be designated in Section 6.1, 6.2 and 6.3 for applications signed and the policy issued in any of the following provinces: Alberta, British Columbia, Manitoba, Ontario or Quebec.
 - The Direction to Pay for Critical Illness Policies form 630E can be completed for applications signed and policies issued in any other province or territory in Canada.
- Proceeds from any critical illness death benefit, including Return of Premium on Death Benefit (ROPD) Rider will be paid to the Insured's estate unless a beneficiary has been designated in Section 6.3.

Revocable and irrevocable beneficiaries

There are two types of beneficiaries: revocable and irrevocable

- A beneficiary designation is considered revocable, unless you make it irrevocable. This will allow the policy owner to change their beneficiary designation at any time without the current beneficiary(ies) consent.
- If you name a beneficiary as irrevocable, your ability to deal with the policy is limited. For example, you cannot change the beneficiary without their consent, unless permitted by law. You may also need the irrevocable beneficiary's consent to deal with the policy, e.g., surrender, assign, and transfer ownership.
- In Quebec, if a married or civil union spouse is named beneficiary, the designation is irrevocable unless otherwise stated.
- A minor child or your estate cannot give consent to make any changes on the policy if they are designated as an irrevocable beneficiary.
- A minor irrevocable beneficiary cannot consent to change of beneficiary and a parent guardian may not sign on behalf of a minor child for this purpose.

Payment of benefits when the beneficiary is a minor

- Except where Quebec law applies, we will pay benefits to the trustee for the minor beneficiary, if you have named one. If no trustee is named, we will make the payment as the law requires.
- Where Quebec law applies, we will pay the parent(s) of the minor beneficiary or Tutor duly appointed in law.

Multiple and contingent beneficiaries

- You can name a beneficiary "primary" or "contingent" ("subrogated" in Quebec).
- If you name more than one beneficiary, indicate the share of each beneficiary; otherwise they will share the benefit equally.
- Benefits will first be paid to all living primary beneficiaries. If a primary beneficiary dies before you, their share of the benefits will be paid equally to the surviving primary beneficiaries unless you state otherwise, or the law provides otherwise.
- If all primary beneficiaries die before you, the benefits will be paid equally to the contingent beneficiary(ies) unless you state otherwise.
- If no beneficiary is alive when the benefits become payable, the benefits will be paid to the policy owner if other than the life insured, otherwise the policy owner's estate.
- If a beneficiary is disqualified from receiving the benefits for any reason, that beneficiary will be treated as if he/she died before you and the benefits will be dealt with in accordance with the law.

If not completed, any beneficiary will be the proposed owner or the estate of the proposed owner

What is the temporary life Insurance Agreement?

This Agreement sets out the terms and conditions under which we agree to provide temporary life insurance coverage while we process your Application. This means that if the Insured dies, we will pay the benefit provided by this Agreement, subject to the terms and conditions set out below.

When does temporary life insurance comes into effect?

Temporary life insurance under this Agreement comes into effect on the date you and the Insured(s) sign Section 17 of this Application, provided that all the following conditions are met:

1. on the date the Application is signed, the age of the Insured is from 15 days and 65 years inclusive;
2. payment of at least 1/12th of the annual premium paid for by cheque or PAD authorization for the policy and any riders has been made with the Application. Payment is deemed made if it is honoured when we first present it; and
3. the temporary insurance questions in Section 16 have been truthfully answered "no".

If any of the conditions are not met, temporary life insurance does not take effect.

When does temporary life insurance end?

Temporary life insurance under this Agreement ends on the earliest of:

1. the date insurance as applied for comes into effect;
2. the date we present a counteroffer to your advisor;
3. the date we decline this Application. In this case, we will mail you a notice of decline to the address given on the Application along with refund of any amount you have paid us;
4. the date you request the cancellation of the Application; and
5. 90 days after this Application was signed.

What are the terms and conditions for the payment of temporary life insurance benefit?

Conditions for payment – Provided all terms and conditions under this Agreement are met, we will pay the temporary life insurance benefit if the Insured dies while this Agreement is in force. In the case of joint coverage, payment of the temporary life insurance benefit is also contingent on the type of plan applied for in this application (joint-first-to-die or joint-last-to-die).

Amount we will pay – The total amount we will pay under this Agreement is the lesser of:

For purposes of this section, the maximum amount is determined as follows:

- a. If more than one Insured is covered under this Agreement, the maximum amount of $1,000,000 is for all Insureds;
- b. If an Insured is covered under more than one temporary life insurance agreement with us, the maximum amount of $1,000,000 is for all temporary life insurance agreements.

For purposes of this section, temporary life insurance agreements include this temporary life insurance agreement, and any accidental death coverage in effect while your application is being underwritten.

Person we will pay – We will pay the person you have named to receive the death benefit in the Application.

Exclusions and limitations – We will not pay a benefit under this Agreement if:

1. any information has been misrepresented on or omitted from this Application;
